

COVID-19 Therapeutics (mabs) FAQ

1. Can Idaho pharmacists prescribe monoclonal antibodies available for COVID-19 that are administered through IV infusion and/or subcutaneously?

Yes, pharmacists in Idaho have independent prescriptive authority in accordance with IC 54-1704.05 and IDAPA 24.36.01.350. The general provisions of pharmacy practice indicate that activities are to be consistent with the education, training and experience of the licensee or registrant.

2. Can Idaho pharmacists administer monoclonal antibodies available for COVID-19 either through IV infusion and/or subcutaneously?

Yes, pharmacists in Idaho have the authority to administer medications in accordance with IC 54-1704.02. Consistent with the provisions of IDAPA 24.36.01.100, medication administration must be consistent with the education, training and experience of the licensee or registrant.

3. Can Idaho pharmacists delegate the administration of monoclonal antibodies available for COVID-19 to pharmacy technicians?

Yes, pharmacists in Idaho can delegate the administration medications to pharmacy technicians in accordance with IDAPA 24.36.01.100, provided the delegated task is consistent with the education, training and experience of the licensee or registrant.